

Plaridel

A Philippine Journal of Communication, Media, and Society

2020 • Volume 17 • Number 1

Duterte and Disinformation

Issue Editor: Ma. Diosa Labiste

i A Note from the Editor
Ma. Diosa Labiste

Main Articles

- 1 Duterte polemic against the Catholic Church as examples of hate speech
Ma. Diosa Labiste
- 35 The Gospel According to Duterte Discourse Analysis of Duterte's God-Talk Based on the Verses Found on Online News
Gerry M. Lanuza
- 75 Rafael Lerma's Photojournalistic Take on the Duterte Administration's Drug War: a Barthesian Semiological Study
Feorillo A. Demeterio III
- 111 Regenerative Documentary: Posthuman Art in the Context of the Philippine Drug War
Adjani Arumpac
- 143 Mula kay GMA hanggang kay Duterte: Kritika sa Ilang Dokumentaryong Politikal at Pagmamapa sa Tunguhin ng Dokumentaryo sa Panahon ng Pasismo at Pagpaslang sa Politikal
Carlo Gabriel Pangilinan
- 177 The Climate of Incivility in Philippine Daily Inquirer's Social Media Environment
Ma. Rosel S. San Pascual

Regular Articles

- 209 Pambihirang Bakla: Ang Homoseksuwalisasyon sa Parisang Bakla sa Bakla ng Ang Boyfriend Kong Bad/ing ni Allan K.
Johann Vladimir Jose Espriritu
- 223 Cruising through spaces: Exploring /the mediatization of gay cruising in the Philippines
Randy Jay C. Solis
- 253 Mobile Romantic and Sexual Selves: Presentations of Young Filipinos in Dating Apps
Jonalou S. Labor

Feature Article

- 285 Electoral Disinformation: Looking Through the Lens of Tsek.ph Fact Checks
Yvonne T. Chua & Jake C. Soriano

Lecture

- 297 Gawad Plaridel Lecture 2019:
Of Plaridel and Pressing Thoughts on the Media and the Arts
Bonifacio Paraboac Ilagan

The cover: Families of victims of “drug war” cover their faces to conceal their identities while attending a protest during President Duterte’s 2018 State of the Nation Address. The photograph was taken by Raffy Lerma and is part of the growing collection of Filipino photographers’ images on Duterte’s violent drug campaign. Image from Mr. Raffy Lerma used with permission.